EDITORIAL

We would like to welcome the team of visitors from the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools. Their visit is the culmination of two years of hard work and self-examination within the college.

Shelton State has matured during this time period. We have grown in a very short time to be the state's fourth largest two year institution. Today more students from Tuscaloosa County attend Shelton State Community College than any other college or university.

To move forward and to accomplish the goals and objectives we have set for ourselves as a result of the self-study process, it is imperative that we have even greater support from the people of this area and the Legislature of our state.

WILSON TO ADDRESS ALUMNI

Steve Wilson of the Tuscaloosa Judicial Court will address the Shelton State Alumni Association at their May meeting on Wednesday, May 23, at 7:30 p.m. in room 86 of the junior college. The people who worked on the "Carmen" production will also be recognized and officers will be elected for the 1984-85 year.

Anyone who has attended Shelton State Community College for at least one year is eligible for membership in the organization.

SHELTON STUDENTS PRESENT RECITAL

Shelton students Tracy Beck and Debbie Jackson will present a joint music recital on Thursday, May 24, at 7:30 p.m. in the junior college auditorium.

Ms. Beck is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Beck of Ralph and will graduate this spring from Shelton State. She has studied piano with Manis Murray and Syble Coats.

Ms. Jackson is a voice student of Eleanor McElvy at Shelton and plans to transfer to the University of Alabama in the fall. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Jackson of Ocker.

CARMEN ON THE ROAD

Shelton's music department has taken their production of "Carmen" to several local high schools for performances. The traveling show, under the direction of Mrs. Joy Dendy, presented performances at Tuscaloosa County High School on Thursday, May 17, and Holt High School on Friday, May 18.

MUSICALE SCHEDULED

Shelton's music department will present a Musicale on Friday, May 25, at 12:30 p.m. in the junior college auditorium. Students scheduled to perform are: Tracy Beck; Debbie Jackson; Jane Ellen Seale; Ross Poole; Suzanne Johnson; Tresa Hardin; Renee Rains; Connie Hall; Randy Vaughn; Stephanie Beaty; Jay Roberts; Bryon Jones; Thom Stephens; and Teresa Hill.

FROM DR. SUMNER

Shelton State is an accredited institution. It is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools. Periodically, a college must undergo a process through which its accreditation is reaffirmed. Shelton State has been involved in that process for the past two years. One of the most important final steps in the accreditation reaffirmation process will occur May 21-23, next Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday. During that time, the college will be visited and reviewed by an 11-man committee from the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools. Some of this committee will want to talk about Shelton with members of the student body. Students are encouraged to cooperate fully when such interviews are requested.

LPN GRADUATION SCHEDULED

Dr. David Partlow, Jr. will be the keynote speaker for the spring graduation class of Shelton's Licensed practical nursing program. Ceremonies are scheduled for Wednesday, May 23, at 7 p.m. in the Junior College auditorium.

The 24 graduates scheduled to receive diplomas are: Rhonda Brogden; Connie Burroughs; Vickie Cannon; Mary Earnest; Dawn Ebbert; Becky Elmore; Teresa Elmore; Stephanie Ford; Diane Guy; Henrietta Hill; Penny Hollingsworth; Vanessa Jackson; Mary Jones; Lynn Johnson; Flo Lewis; Pauline Linn; Judy McAbee; Dorothy Pouge; Lindy Smothers; Genevia Southall; Glenda Styron; Cindy Vaughn; and Patricia Weaver. Mrs. Dorothy S. Beams, R.N. is instructor for the class.

SPOON RIVER ANTHOLOGY COMES TO SHELTON

"Spoon River Anthology," the first production of the newly formed Readers' Theater of Shelton State Community College, is scheduled for Tuesday, May 22, at 8 p.m. in the junior college auditorium. "Spoon River Anthology" is written by Edgar Lee Masters, and the Shelton performance will be directed by Linda Mason, instructor of speech. She will be assisted by Dr. Allen Bales, retired professor of oral interpretation at the University of Alabama.

The cast for the performance includes: Richard Coon; Glenn Johnson; James Jolly; Susan Carol Brown; and Gloria Kuykendall. Al Butts is technical assistant, and Sandra Day is the script assistant.

The Humanities Division will sponsor a reception after the performance. The production is free and open to the public.

ALABAMA STATE FIRE COLLEGE RECEIVES MONEY FOR TRAINING PROGRAM

The Rural Fire Protection Forestry Commission of Alabama has presented a check to the Alabama State Fire College and Technical Assistance Program to be used for the training of volunteer fire departments across the state. The $50,000 will be presented to Bob Hagler, director of the Fire College, and Shelton president Dr. Leo Sumner, next Thursday at 11 a.m. by Forestry director Ray Tucker.

SAMPSON TO PRESENT POETRY READING

Shelton faculty member Dennis Sampson will present a reading from his book, THE DOUBLE GENESIS on Monday, May 28, at 7 p.m. A graduate of the University of Iowa's Writer's Workshop, Sampson's work has appeared in magazines and periodicals throughout the country, most notably THE HUDSON REVIEW and THE REAPER, two of the country's most prestigious quarterlies. His poems have been anthologized and he is a recipient of the Academy of American Poet's Prize. The reading will be held in the music room and a reception will follow the reading. The public is invited to attend.

SEVEN BASEBALL PLAYERS SIGNED

Seven area high school seniors have signed scholarship forms to play for Shelton's newly formed baseball team. New signees are: Tracy Cox, Brookwood; Brett Morrison, Glenn Smith, Holt; Bill Pruden, Central; Rodney Luncford, Northside; Brian Kemp, Rich Quigley, Tuscaloosa County High. Approximately 20 scholarships will be available. Other scholarships will be awarded after tryouts on Saturday, May 26, at Hillcrest High School, beginning at 9:30 a.m.
